PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

This proxy statement is furnished to stockholders of A. O. Smith Corporation (“Company”) in connection with the solicitation by its Board of Directors of proxies for use at the annual meeting of stockholders of the Company to be held on April 10, 2006, at 10:30 A.M., Eastern Time, at the Hotel du Pont, 11th and Market Streets, Wilmington, Delaware.

The record date for stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting is the close of business on February 22, 2006 (the “Record Date”). As of the Record Date, the Company had issued 8,499,655 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $5 per share, 8,467,060 shares of which were outstanding and entitled to one (1) vote each for Class A Common Stock directors and other matters. As of the Record Date, the Company had issued 24,049,807 shares of Common Stock, par value $1 per share, 22,031,682 shares of which were outstanding and entitled to one (1) vote each for Common Stock directors and one-tenth (1/10th) vote each for other matters.

The Notice of 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, this proxy statement, form of proxy card and the Company’s 2005 Annual Report are being mailed on or about March 6, 2006, to each stockholder of the Company at the holder’s address of record.

Under the Company’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as long as the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock is at least 10% of the aggregate number of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, the holders of the Class A Common Stock and holders of the Common Stock vote as separate classes in the election of directors. The holders of the Common Stock are entitled to elect, as a class, 25% of the entire Board of Directors of the Company, and the holders of Class A Common Stock are entitled to elect the remainder of the Board. Stockholders are entitled to one (1) vote per share in the election of directors for their class of stock.

A majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote must be represented in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to constitute a quorum for purposes of holding the annual meeting. The voting by stockholders at the meeting is conducted by the inspectors of election. Abstentions and broker nonvotes, if any, are counted as present in determining whether the quorum requirement is met.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast, by proxy or in person, with the holders voting as separate classes. A plurality of votes means that the nominees who receive the greatest number of votes cast are elected as directors. Consequently, any shares that are not voted, whether by abstention, broker nonvotes or otherwise, will have no effect on the election of directors.

For all other matters considered at the meeting, both classes of stock vote together as a single class, with the Class A Common Stock entitled to one (1) vote per share and the Common Stock entitled to one-tenth (1/10th) vote per share. Each such other matter is approved if a majority of the votes present or represented at the meeting are cast in favor of the matter. On such other matters, an abstention will have the same effect as a “no” vote but, because shares held by brokers will not be considered entitled to vote on matters as to which the brokers withhold authority, a broker nonvote will have no effect on the vote.

Table of Contents

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company. A proxy may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before the exercise thereof by delivering written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date to the Secretary of the Company or by attending the meeting and voting in person. All valid proxies not revoked will be voted unless marked to abstain. Where a choice is specified on a proxy, the shares represented by such proxy will be voted in accordance with the specification made. If no instruction is indicated, then the shares will be voted FOR proposals (1) through (3) set forth in the accompanying notice.

The cost of soliciting proxies, including preparing, assembling and mailing the notice of meeting, proxy statement, form of proxy and other soliciting materials, as well as the cost of forwarding such material to the beneficial owners of stock, will be paid by the Company, except for some costs associated with individual stockholders' use of the internet or telephone. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers, regular employees of the Company and others may also, but without compensation other than their regular compensation, solicit proxies personally or by telephone or other means of electronic communication. The Company may reimburse brokers and others holding stock in their names or in the names of nominees for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in sending proxy material to principals and beneficial owners.

Pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, services that deliver the Company's communications to stockholders that hold their stock through a bank, broker or other holder of record may deliver to multiple stockholders sharing the same address a single copy of the Company's 2005 Annual Report and this proxy statement. Upon written or oral request, the Company will promptly deliver a separate copy of the Company's 2005 Annual Report and/or this proxy statement to any stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of each document was delivered. Stockholders may notify the Company of their requests by calling or writing Craig Watson, Director of Investor Relations, A. O. Smith Corporation, P.O. Box 245008, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53224-9508; (414) 359-4009.

The Board of Directors

The business of the Company is managed under the direction of the Board of Directors, who are elected by the stockholders. Directors meet their responsibilities by participating in meetings of the Board of Directors and Board committees on which they sit, through communication with our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and other officers and employees, by consulting with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and other third parties, by reviewing materials provided to them, and by visiting our offices and plants. During 2005, the Board held five regular meetings and two special meetings. The Committees of the Board of Directors held a total of 25 meetings. All directors attended at least 75% of the scheduled Board and Committee meetings.

Table of Contents

The Company is committed to a Board in which a majority of its members consist of independent directors, as defined under the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) Rules. The Board has reviewed the independence of its members, applying the NYSE Rules and considering any other commercial, legal, accounting and familial relationships between the directors and the Company. The Board has determined that Messrs. Brown, Buehler, Wulf and Mark D. Smith and Ms. Wolf meet the NYSE independence requirements. Messrs. O’Toole and Jones are considered management directors by virtue of their current and recent positions as executive officers of the Company. With respect to Mr. Bruce M. Smith, the Board determined that he is a non-management director but not independent due to his executive officer position with SICO, the Company’s largest stockholder with a controlling interest in the Company. The Board has elected to exercise the “Controlled Company” exemption under the NYSE Rules with respect to Mr. Bruce Smith’s participation on the Personnel and Compensation Committee. In this regard, the Board determined that Mr. Bruce Smith uniquely represents the best interests of stockholders by virtue of his position with SICO and should continue to serve on this Committee. The Board has not elected to exercise this exemption in any other respect.

The Board recognizes that the NYSE Rules require financial literacy of Audit Committee members only. Notwithstanding that, as a best practice, the Board has reviewed the qualifications and experience of its members and determined that each director is financially literate within the meaning of the NYSE Rules.

The non-management directors of the Board met in executive session without management present five times in 2005. The presiding director at these meetings was the Chairperson of the Nominating and Governance Committee. The presiding director during the period April, 2006 to April, 2007 will be the Chairperson of the Audit Committee.

Stockholders wishing to communicate with the presiding director may send correspondence to the Presiding Director, c/o W. David Romoser, Corporate Secretary, A. O. Smith Corporation, 11270 West Park Place, P.O. Box 245009, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53224-9509. Further, stockholders wishing to communicate with individual directors may follow the same procedure. All correspondence should be in a sealed envelope marked “Confidential” and will be forwarded unopened to the presiding director or other director, as appropriate.

Board Committees

The Board of Directors has delegated some of its authority to committees of the Board. There are four standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Personnel and Compensation Committee, the Investment Policy Committee, and the Nominating and Governance Committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee consists of three members who meet the independence and financial literacy requirements of the NYSE and the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The Audit Committee’s duties include appointing the firm that will act as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company. The Audit Committee’s duties and responsibilities are set forth in its Charter, which has been approved by the Board of Directors. It is available on the Company’s website. The Board of Directors has determined that Ms. Wolf and Mr. Wulf qualify as “audit committee financial experts” as defined by the SEC. The Audit Committee met four times during 2005, and additionally held eight telephonic meetings. The Report of the Audit Committee is included as part of this proxy statement.

Personnel and Compensation Committee. The Personnel and Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing and administering the Company’s compensation and benefit plans for officers, executives and management employees, including the determination of eligibility for participation in such plans. It determines the compensation to be paid to officers and certain other selected executives, and evaluates the performance of the chairman and chief executive officer in light of established goals and objectives. The Personnel and Compensation Committee’s duties and responsibilities are set forth in its Charter, which has been approved by the Board and is available on the Company’s website. The Committee consists of three non-management directors. The Committee held five meetings during 2005. The Personnel and Compensation Committee Report is included as part of this proxy statement.

Table of Contents

Investment Policy Committee. The Investment Policy Committee is responsible for investment policy and certain other matters for all Company retirement plans. The Committee consists of two members. The Investment Policy Committee held four meetings during 2005.

Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee assists the Board in identifying qualified candidates for election as Board members, and establishes and periodically reviews criteria for selection of directors. Further, the Committee provides direction to the Board as to the independence, financial literacy and financial expertise of directors, and the composition of the Board and its committees. As part of its responsibilities, the Committee also oversees the process to assess Board and committee effectiveness, implements corporate governance guidelines and advises the Board on corporate governance matters. The responsibilities and duties of the Nominating and Governance Committee are set forth in its Charter, which has been approved by the Board and is available on the Company's website. The Committee consists of two members, both of whom are independent under the NYSE rules. The Nominating and Governance Committee met three times during 2005 and additionally held one telephonic meeting. The Report of the Nominating and Governance Committee is included as part of this proxy statement.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider candidates recommended by stockholders, directors, officers, third-party search firms and other sources for nomination as a director. The Committee considers the needs of the Board and evaluates each director candidate in light of, among other things, the candidate's qualifications. All candidates' qualifications are identified in the Corporate Governance Guidelines and the Criteria for Selecting Board of Director Candidates, both of which can be found on the Company's website by clicking on "Corporate Governance" and then on the specific document. To summarize, all candidates should be independent and possess substantial and significant experience which would be of value to the Company in the performance of the duties of a director. Recommended candidates must be of the highest character and integrity, free of any conflicts of interest, have an inquiring mind and vision, and possess the ability to work collaboratively with others. Each candidate must have the time available to devote to Board activities and be of an age that, if elected, the candidate could serve on the Board for at least five years before reaching the mandatory retirement age. Finally, the Company believes it appropriate for certain key members of the Company's management to participate as members of the Board, while recognizing that a majority of independent directors must be maintained at all times. All candidates will be reviewed in the same manner, regardless of the source of the recommendation.

A stockholder recommendation of a director candidate must be received no later than the date for submission of stockholder proposals. Please see the section of this proxy entitled "Date for Stockholder Proposals." The recommendation letter should be sent by mail to the Chairperson, Nominating and Governance Committee, c/o W. Executive officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) Forms 3, 4 and 5 which they file.

<sup>(1)</sup> The Pension Plan Table shows estimated aggregate annual benefits payable to an executive officer upon retirement under the A. O. Smith Retirement Plan and the A. O. Smith Corporation Executive Supplemental Pension Plan. The A. O. Smith Corporation Executive Supplemental Pension Plan is a nonqualified excess benefit and supplemental retirement plan intended to provide benefits that participants would receive under the A. O. Smith Retirement Plan if the A. O. Smith Retirement Plan were not subject to certain limitations that the Internal Revenue Code imposes on benefits payable under it and if the A. O. Smith Retirement Plan took into account 100%, rather than 50%, of bonus compensation. The calculations assume retirement at December 31, 2006, at age 63 and the final compensation and years of service set forth in the Table. Benefit amounts were computed on a straight-life annuity basis. Amounts payable to a participant as set forth in the Table are subject to offset in an amount that is based on the value of certain life insurance arrangements in effect for the participant and are not subject to any other offsets.

<sup>(2)</sup> The compensation covered by the A. O. Smith Retirement Plan and the A. O. Smith Corporation Executive Supplemental Pension Plan is based on the average of the highest five years of annual compensation out of the last ten years prior to retirement. The amount included in the calculation of compensation, as reflected in the Summary Compensation Table, is Salary and Bonus; but it does not include Other Annual Compensation, Long-Term Compensation or All Other Compensation amounts.

<sup>(3)</sup> Messrs' O'Toole, Jones, Rajendra, Massa, Romoser and Mapes had 42 years, 2 years, 11 months, 28 years, 13 years and 1 year 3 months of service, respectively, at year-end.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The directors who served as members of the Personnel and Compensation Committee during fiscal year 2005 were Ronald D. Brown, William F. Buehler and Bruce M. Smith.

During 2005, the Company provided SICO consulting services; office space; directors', officers' and group insurance coverage and other miscellaneous services. The Company was reimbursed by SICO in the amount of $108,549 for the Company's costs relating to such services. Director Bruce M. Smith's brother, Roger S. Smith, and director Mark D. Smith's brother, Arthur O. Smith, are both employed by the Company in non-executive capacities. Each are long service employees whose employment precedes his brother's election to the Board by more than ten years, and each is subject to the same terms and conditions of employment as other salaried employees.

REPORT OF THE PERSONNEL AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Personnel and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for discharging the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company's executives, establishing an executive compensation program, and administering the executive compensation policies and plans of the Company. The Committee regularly retains an independent compensation consultant firm to conduct a study of the Company's director and executive compensation policies, plans and practices and to advise the Committee on these matters. The Committee also determines the amount of compensation that the Company's chief executive officer and other executive officers receive annually. It reviews the chief executive officer performance, oversees management succession planning, and reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to the compensation of all directors. The Committee has a written Charter which details its purpose and responsibilities. This Charter can be accessed at the Company's website, www.aosmith.com.

The Committee consisted of three members, each of whom is a non-management director of the Company. This report was prepared by the Committee to provide the Company's stockholders with a summary of its executive compensation policies, program and practices.

The Committee has two primary objectives relating to the Company's executive compensation program. The first is to recruit and retain high quality executive leadership which is committed to the successful and profitable operation of the Company's businesses, both currently and in the long-term. The other is to maintain a cost effective incentive compensation program which links executive pay to the stockholders' return on their investment in the Company.

In order to achieve these objectives, the Committee provides an executive compensation program competitive with other comparably sized manufacturing companies. The Committee believes that return on investment currently provides the best measure of performance because it closely correlates the benefits to the stockholders with the financial incentives for the executives. The Committee has established ranges for financial incentives based upon return on investment, with smaller incentive payments for a modest return on investment and larger incentive payments for greater returns.

The Company's executive compensation program currently consists of three components: base salary, short-term incentive compensation in the form of an annual bonus, and long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options, restricted stock units and performance units. The Company began awarding restricted stock units, also known as "phantom stock," in place of restricted shares in October, 2005.

In determining the executive compensation practices, the Committee compares the Company's executive compensation program with other companies' compensation programs for executives with similar management responsibilities. The companies surveyed include comparable manufacturing businesses. For purposes of evaluating and reviewing the Company's executive compensation program, the Committee annually reviews executive compensation databases and biannually utilizes an independent compensation consultant, which is accountable directly to the Committee.

Table of Contents

The Committee has designated certain executives, including the chief executive officer (“CEO”), for participation in the executive compensation program in accordance with the performance criteria and standards described below.

BASE SALARY

The Committee establishes competitive salary ranges for the executive officers, generally at the median level of the salary ranges in the survey referred to above. In addition, the Committee reviews each executive’s performance and accomplishments during the prior year as well as experience and service with the Company in determining the annual base salary level for the executive within the applicable salary range. In 2005, this methodology was followed in establishing base salaries for executive officers, including the CEO and other key employees.

SHORT-TERM INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

Short-term incentive compensation is provided under the shareholder-approved A. O. Smith Combined Executive Incentive Compensation Plan (“Plan”). The Plan, consistent with the Company’s philosophy of linking compensation to the Company’s return on investment, provides an opportunity for executives to earn a cash bonus, the amount of which is based upon the Company’s and/or the operating unit’s return on investment. Each year the Committee sets minimum and maximum financial objectives for each of the operating units and the Company. Achievement of these financial objectives by the operating or corporate units determines the amount of the Incentive Compensation Fund available for the award of individual executive bonuses.

Incentive compensation for executive officers at the Company’s corporate offices is predicated on the Company achieving its financial objectives and from time to time specific strategic objectives. For executive officers at operating units, the incentive compensation is predicated on the executive’s unit meeting its financial objectives and upon attainment of strategic objectives established each year for the executive. In determining the amount of the incentive compensation award to be paid to an individual executive, the Committee considers the executive’s scope of responsibility, contributions to profit improvement and attainment of the individual’s strategic objectives. In 2005, the Committee made incentive compensation awards to the participating executives based on these factors.

The maximum amount of performance-based compensation payable to an executive during any year is $5 million. In order to be eligible for incentive compensation, executives are required to enter into Award Agreements which obligate them to remain in the employment of the Company for the year.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

The Committee utilizes the shareholder-approved A. O. Smith Combined Executive Incentive Compensation Plan (“Plan”) in annually making awards that will be paid in the form of stock options, restricted stock units and performance units. At the Committee’s discretion performance units are paid in either cash or stock. Grants of stock options and restricted stock units are awarded to the executives at the market price of the stock on the dates of the respective grants. The size of the grants to the executive are established at a level commensurate with the median level of grants for the executive’s position as reported in the aforementioned survey data and a study by the independent compensation consultant. Pursuant to the Plan, executives enter into Award Agreements each year which reflect the specific terms of the stock option, restricted stock unit and the performance unit grants and terms of forfeiture should the executive leave the employment of the Company.

In aligning the financial interests of the Company’s executive officers with those of shareholders, the Committee has set minimum stock ownership guidelines for the executive officers. Shares owned directly are considered for determining whether an executive meets the guidelines. As of the end of 2005, substantially all of the executives meet the guidelines. Those executives who do not meet the guidelines have received a significant promotion or have been hired within the past five years and are within the transition for meeting the guidelines. If an executive officer does not make appropriate progress to meet the guidelines, the executive’s future long-term incentive compensation may be adversely affected.

CEO COMPENSATION

The Committee, in establishing the 2005 compensation program for the Chief Executive Officer, Robert J. O'Toole, employed the methodology, surveys and independent compensation consultant review previously described in this report. In setting Mr. O'Toole's base salary for 2005, the Committee reviewed his accomplishments during the prior year, experience, and service with the Company and determined to position it at the median level of salaries of chief executive officers of comparable manufacturing companies. Mr. O'Toole's bonus compensation for 2005 was directly related to the return on investment earned by the Company and reflected Committee-set minimum and maximum objectives. The maximum amount of performance-based compensation payable to Mr. O'Toole is $5 million. The Committee made long-term incentive award grants to Mr. O'Toole under the Plan consistent with the methodology utilized in making grants to the other participating executives.

CONCLUDING REMARKS

The Committee reviewed executive compensation during 2005 and concluded that the stockholders' interests were well served by the executive compensation program. The Committee will continue to monitor and evaluate its executive compensation program and make any adjustments determined to be appropriate. The Committee intends whenever possible to preserve the deductibility of executive compensation paid by the Company in accordance with the provisions of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board, to oversee the activities of the Company's internal audit function, to appoint the independent registered public accounting firm, and to report the results of the Committee's activities to the Board. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and reporting process, including the systems of internal control, and Ernst & Young LLP (the independent registered public accounting firm) is responsible for auditing and reporting on those financial statements and the Company's internal control structure, as well as examining and reporting on management's assertion about the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. The Committee has reviewed and discussed with management and the independent registered public accounting firm the Company's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005.

During 2005, the Audit Committee met four times and held eight telephonic meetings. The Committee chair and other members of the Committee met telephonically each quarter and discussed the earnings news release and the Company's Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K and interim financial statements contained in SEC Forms 10-Q with the chief financial officer, controller, and independent registered public accounting firm prior to filing and public release.

The Committee has discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Both the Director of Internal Audit and the independent registered public accounting firm have direct access to the Audit Committee at any time on any issue of their choosing, and the Committee has the same direct access to the Director of Internal Audit and the independent registered public accounting firm. The Committee has met with the internal auditors and the independent registered public accounting firm, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

The Committee has received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, and have discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm their independence. In addition, the Committee has considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the independent registered public accounting firm's independence. The Audit Committee has adopted procedures for pre-approving all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm. These procedures include reviewing and approving a budget for audit and permitted non-audit services. Audit Committee approval is required to exceed the amount of the budget for a particular category of non-audit services. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has concluded the provision of the non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent registered public accounting firm's independence.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, Ernst & Young LLP was employed principally to perform the annual audit and to render other services. Fees paid to Ernst & Young LLP for each of the last two fiscal years are listed in the following table:

|                    | Year Ended December 31 |                     |
|                    | 2005                   | 2004                |
| Audit Service Fees | $ 1,122,900           | $ 1,224,020        |
| Audit Related Fees | 95,325                 | 62,500              |
| Tax Fees           | 243,400                | 317,950             |
| All Other Fees     | None                   | None                |
| Total Fees  | $ 1,461,625    | $ 1,604,470 |

Audit fees consist of fees for the annual audit of the Company's financial statements and internal controls over financial reporting, reviews of financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Q filings, statutory audits for certain of the Company's foreign locations and other services related to regulatory filings.

Audit related fees are principally fees for accounting consultations. Tax fees consist primarily of tax consulting services.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements, referred to above, be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee appointed Ernst & Young LLP, as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2006, subject to shareholder ratification, and approved its estimated fees for audit, audit related, and tax services.

APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company has appointed Ernst & Young LLP, Certified Public Accountants, as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2006. Although not required to be submitted to a vote of the stockholders, the Board of Directors believes it appropriate to obtain stockholder ratification of the Audit Committee's action in appointing Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Board of Directors has itself ratified the Audit Committee's action. Should such appointment not be ratified by the stockholders, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors will reconsider the matter.

REPORT OF THE NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

The Nominating and Governance Committee met four times during the year. The Committee reviewed and ratified its charter, which provides that the Committee is responsible for the nomination of directors and the Company's corporate governance practices. The Committee considered candidates for director and recommended to the Board Idelle K. Wolf, who was initially elected by the Board of Directors in October, 2005. The Presiding Director procedure was reviewed by the Committee. It recommended to the Board and the Board adopted the procedure whereby the Presiding Director position in connection with Non-Management Directors meetings rotates among the chairpersons of the committees of the Board, with the chairperson of the Nominating and Governance Committee being appointed to serve during the period April, 2005 to April, 2006. It also monitored the corporate governance of the Company. It recommended to the Board of Directors updates to the corporate governance guidelines, which the Board adopted. It reviewed the code of business conduct and financial code of ethics, minimum qualifications for directors, the process and procedure for shareholder recommendation of director candidates and shareholder communications with the Board, which the Board previously adopted. The Committee reviewed the effectiveness of the dissemination and disclosure of these and other corporate governance documents, including its charter, to employees and dissemination to shareholders via the Company's website. The address of the website is www.aosmith.com. These documents are also available upon request from the corporate secretary. No waivers were sought or granted from the Company's code of conduct. The Committee is not aware of any situation or circumstance that would require a waiver.

The Committee reviewed Board committee member qualifications and made recommendations to the Board on member appointments to committees. The Committee reviewed the Board's committee structure and operations and reported to the Board regarding them.

The Committee also conducted an evaluation of its performance and oversaw the evaluation process to ensure that the Board and each of the other committees performed its own self-evaluation and reported on it to the Board of Directors.

Ronald D. Brown, Chairperson
William F. Buehler, Committee Member
